

KARDAMYLI

One of the best preserved traditional settlements of Mani, Kardamyli is an important tourist centre. First mentioned by Homer, the village still retains its prehistoric name.

The seaside Kardamyli was the seat of the captains during the Turkish occupation . One of the main attractions is the Old Quarter with the Cathedral of Saint Spyridon and the Tower of Mourtzinos , built in 1807, a fort complex that played an important defensive role in the early 19th century .

