

AIGINA

Famous for its pottery, is covered with pistachio trees. Its beautiful green villages are surrounded by pine forests. Aegina is also the home to one of antiquity's most famous temples, the one of "Aphaia". Small churches, scattered neo-classical houses, monasteries, picturesque harbors, all surrounded by the sparkling sea and an air of past glory. A nice, calm island to visit.

