

POROS

As you approach the island of Poros by boat, the historical clock prevails on the hill's highest peak smothered by prickly pear and pine trees. Large homes on the beach with their neo-classic style contrast the common duplex houses. The island conveys serenity and relaxation with the pine trees that reach the shores and the sandy beaches, but it also offers to visitors cosmopolitan lifestyle and contemporary facilities.

